NLP PRACTITIONER

Certificated Qualifications

I'm noticing so much now as I'm speaking to others - their language patterns, sensory information...

Why Train with GWiz?

We (Melody and Joe) are both NLP Master Trainers (there are only a few of us in the UK). We also both have Master's degrees in psychology related subjects and are passionate about our own learning and development.

We have been working with NLP since 1993 and have over 20 years experience each in the personal and corporate development fields. We link NLP to the broader field of psychology. We are co-founders of the Positive School of Intrinsic Neuro-linguistic Psychology (PSiNLP).

We are committed to working with the ANLP who are the most independent and well respected NLP association in the UK. We are both on the accreditation panel and are involved in organising the International Research Conference. Joe is also the editor of the ANLP journal: Acuity.

We regularly publish articles on NLP and believe in getting knowledge 'out there' rather than keeping to ourselves!

We are regular speakers at various NLP conferences and groups.

Still assimilating the most amazing nine days of my life and really excited about where the journey will take me...

How do you Know you are Interested in NLP?

Do you want to be able to...

Free yourself from limiting beliefs?

Feel more confident and in control?

Manage change more elegantly?

Raise yourself and others

to higher performance levels?

Sit in the driving seat for a change?

Gain a qualification that really helps you make a difference...

or

Are you just curious?

You might be interested in NLP for many reasons, including any of the following:

Personal Development

On a personal level you will learn how to 're-write' limiting beliefs and increase self confidence and self esteem. You will understand more about the workings of the unconscious, how to make changes and move through emotional blocks. It may be for you that your personal development takes you on a more spiritual journey, helping you to find more balance and inner peace.

Business/Professional Development

The practical benefits include learning how to powerfully influence others individually, in groups and organisationally.

Life Coaching & Performance Coaching

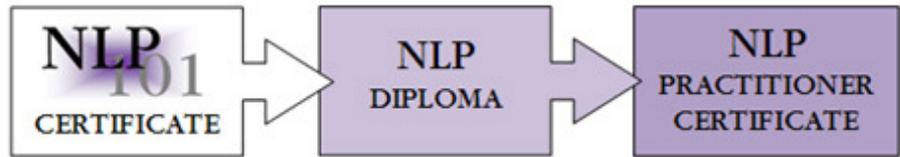

The skills developed in this programme will enable excellence in coaching, helping you to help other people to transform their lives. Being an NLP Practitioner will also give you invaluable tools in life and performance coaching.

The programme has created a real shift in me, and I'm finding it so exciting being able to use my learning to help others...

Course Format

THE COMPLETE NLP PRACTITIONER

- Because we understand that people prefer to do things in different ways, we run our programme in a flexible format
- You might prefer to start by just booking our free 2 day NLP 101. Or perhaps you will book this and the NLP Diploma too. You might even book the whole NLP Practitioner Either is better!

The Format

- How does it work?

The free NLP 101 workshop provides you first with an experience of how NLP will work for you. You get to start by getting some change! You will also learn some foundation skills and gain 50% of the credits needed for our NLP Diploma qualification.

- How do I complete my NLP Diploma?

We like to give you plenty of choices, you can either sign up for the rest of the Diploma when you book your NLP 101 workshop or you can complete it at later date. The full Diploma is four days, remember you will have already completed the first two days as part of the 101! So you only have two more days to go! Once you have your NLP Diploma you will be well on your way to gaining your NLP Practitioner Certificates.

- How do I complete my NLP Practitioner?

Simple, you just sign up for the next NLP Practitioner, part 2. You've already done part 1 when you completed your NLP Diploma! Part 2 is an intensive 7 day workshop that will allow you to fully immerse yourself in your learning experience.

What is an NLP Practitioner?

NLP (Neuro-Linguistic Programming) could be defined as 'the psychology of excellence and the science of change'.

An NLP Practitioner could be described as 'an agent for change'.

The principles of NLP can be used at different levels to:

- Develop yourself (Personal)
- Help develop others (Interpersonal)
- Realign businesses (Organisational)

NLP was founded originally to model excellence. By establishing exactly how someone achieves something, excellence can be 'installed' and repeated again and again. From this starting point, over the last thirty years, an array of processes, concepts and techniques have been developed to enable you to:

- become more resourceful in managing attitudes, thoughts, emotions, behaviours and beliefs
- relate to others easily and effortlessly,
- understand how language and its use has a direct impact on your state, your brain and your success in communicating with others.

In addition to all this, as an NLP practitioner, you will learn techniques designed to help you develop your own skills and help others develop theirs. The principles will be introduced conversationally and with activities throughout the course allowing participants to learn on many levels consciously and unconsciously.

Who is the course for?

For you and anyone like you who wants to work effectively with other people.

Next Steps and Further Support

Are you ready for the experience now?

Master Practitioner

The next logical step after Practitioner is to become an NLP Master Practitioner. Our Master Practitioner course covers even more concepts and techniques and will help you to use NLP more and more conversationally. We use the principles of NLP to explore together such topics as:

- What is reality? What is the Matrix?
- Personal Identity: Who is 'I', who is 'me'?
- Life purpose, life challenge
- Health, ecology and ethics
- Paradox, Time and Infinity

Practice Group

The GWiz Learning Partnership hosts a monthly evening meeting for anyone interested in NLP to share ideas with one another and to 'sharpen the saw'. Practitioners from any school of NLP are welcome.

Supervision

Supervision is for small groups of Practitioner and Master Practitioners who want to focus on skill development through feedback and troubleshooting.

Coaching

Personal Support sessions are available to work through issues, develop strategies and achieve goals using NLP.

The Trainers

Our trainers are accredited with HNLP (Humanistic Neuro-linguistic Psychology) and the Association of NLP (ANLP). They are also the co-founders of PSiNLP with US Master Trainer Julie Silverthorn.

MELODY CHEAL (MSc psych, Master Trainer NLP)

Melody has an MSc in Applied Positive Psychology, a degree in Psychology, a diploma in Psychotherapy and is a certified NLP Master Trainer. For those of you ready for the next step, she also leads our Hypnotherapy training programme. She is also a practitioner of Myers Briggs, LAB Profile and Emotional Intelligence.

As a partner in The GWiz Learning Partnership, Melody runs courses in both the private and the public sector, focusing on interpersonal skills and self-awareness. Since 1993 she has worked with international committees, directors, senior managers, teams and front line staff in groups and one to one as a coach. She specialises in emotional intelligence, personal effectiveness, understanding behaviour and leadership.

JOE CHEAL (MSc OD&NLP, Master Trainer NLP)

Joe is a Learning & Organisational Development Specialist, focusing his training, coaching and consultancy experience into the business environment since 1993. He is the author of "Solving Impossible Problems" and the editor of Acuity: The ANLP Journal.

He holds an MSc in Organisational Development and Neuro-linguistic Technologies, a degree in Philosophy and Psychology, a diploma in Coaching and a diploma in Hypnotherapy, Psychotherapy and NLP. He is also certified NLP Master Trainer and a practitioner of Emotional Intelligence and LAB Profile.

As well as working closely with HR, L&D & OD professionals, he is a CIPD Committee Member.
